

SALUTE & SCOUT SIGN

SCOUT SALUTE

The Scout salute is a sign of respect and friendship. Whenever you are in uniform and see others wearing a scout badge or uniform always try to be the first to give a smart salute.

Bring your hand up smartly in a wide outward sweep and hold it at your forehead or hat brim for a second or two with the palm forward then bring your hand down by the shortest route back to your side.

SCOUT SIGN

The Scout sign is made to the shoulder by the whole troop when a Scout is being invested or when repeating the Promise. It is not used at any other time.
